Please provide below a summary of activities and discussions and few quotes from participants:

The multiplier started with a warm welcome. Elif Soydemir and Hasan Dirik welcomed participants and introduced themselves. Elif Soydemir explained the participants the reasons and importance of Adult Educators in Us & Them project. Regarding the project name, the participants were asked some questions like 'Who do you consider as US?' 'Who are the others?' 'What about you? Who really are you?' 'Can you describe yourselves?' The questions created a big discuss among the participants. They tried to find the concept of Us & Them. Finally, everybody agreed that we are all US no matter in which country we live, from what culture or ethnic roots we share, what different languages we speak. We have many common things as human beings. In the next session Hasan Dirik tried to give a general knowledge about the project and main aspects and important parts of the projects. He presented main parts and talked about the main activities done during the project phase. As all the participants Adult educators and they will need the individual outputs used in the project, they were given some information about the curriculum and the courses the project partners took as and Adult Educators during the project. After the presentations of the curriculum they asked some questions. In second part, Handbook I and Handbook II were introduced to the participants and they had a chance to check the books. Some topics were talked and they were found really useful by the Adult Educators. The participants were amazed about the works of the project. They appreciated all the activities and efforts given by all project partners. The feedbacks of the participants were really noteworthy that they were all contented about knowing about the project and the event they attended.

"I was not expecting the event would be such helpful and amazing. I really liked it."

"Thanks to the project, I had chance to think about the cultures and my prejudices through the people. I was wrong. I will focus on people more not their cultures or religious."

"It was interesting that it was the first time I was asked to explain myself. I will think about the questions who really I am. Thank you so much."
